

Redbud Estates

Anderson, IN

Located in Anderson, IN, and close to Indianapolis, Redbud Estates features tranquil surroundings. Our residents enjoy being part of a bustling surrounding community with a vibrant downtown area. Our high-quality homes have standard features including 2-3 bedrooms, large living areas, open kitchens with plenty of counter and cabinet space (even islands), plus master bedrooms and bathrooms. While similar to site-built homes, the price of owning or renting a manufactured home in Redbud Estates is much more affordable. Redbud Estates manufactured home community has on-site management and offers 24-hour maintenance for your convenience. It's ideal for those who want carefree living with a reasonable price.

UMH Properties, Inc. has a program called "United Neighbors. The program encourages local neighborhood businesses to work together to better the community by using business to business referral. By participating in the "United Neighbors" program, Redbud Estates will advertise your business to our residents each month in our community newsletter.

Step outside of your home and take advantage of our community amenities including:

-  24 Hour Maintenance Services
-  On-Site Management
-  Self-Storage Units
